

'NO PROBLEM'

PAUL DAVIES GETS A TELEPHONE CALL FROM LEEDS
AND ENDS UP IN THE WEST INDIES

Traffic at 30 mph, British cars everywhere
— and yes, it really was raining!

Alec Poole took his BDA Escort to the
Caribbean and pulverised the locals

It's hot work being a mechanic, but the sun has its attractions. The car is Brian Ibrahim's immaculate DTV replica Firenza which lives on Trinidad but like most of the racing cars in the West Indies is seen at most meetings on the other islands
